TAKE OLD PHONES OUT IS EDICT OF CITY'S COUNCIL

Lower Board Adopts Measure of Retaliation Against East Tennessee.

Police and Fire Stations to Use Home Exclusively.

WILL USE MONEY DECLINED

Tired of litigation with the East Tennessee Telephone company, which is operating under an old grant and refuses to accept such a franchise as the city of Paducah is willing to offer, conforming in terms to that granted the Home company, the lower board of the general council last night took measures in retaliation, and it is said McCracken county will follow suit.

All the East Tennessee telephones were ordered out of the public offices including the mayor's, auditor's, street inspector's, police judge's and city engineer's offices, the post house, hospital, lighting plant and police and the departments. Policemen and firemen and other city employees keep in touch with their headquarters by telephone and to reach them they will be compelled to use the Home system, as will the public in turning in alarms.

There was a plan on foot for a meeting of merchants to take similar action, but since the company has an injunction against the city, anything in the nature of a boycott will be avoided, the members of the general council considering that they have the right to discontinue the use of the East Tennessee system if they desire.

The matter will be up to the aldermen Thursday night, and it is said great influence is being brought to bear both ways on the members to-day to control their votes.

The resolution introduced last night was as follows:

"Whereas, The East Tennessee Telephone company, refuses to take a franchise, and submit to the laws governing like corporations in the city of Paducah, but persist in erecting poles and burying 'dead men' when and where they please;

"Therefore, be it resolved, That the mayor shall request their agent to remove their telephones from all public places belonging to the city, or have them discontinued with the city's public places.

He it further resolved, That the city collector be requested to return $3,286, or the exact amount tendered, the East Tennessee Telephone company, which has been refused."

It was introduced by Councilman Al Young, who spoke in favor of it, as did Alderman W. T. Miller, while President H. R. Lindsey spoke against it. The vote was for the resolution. Councilmen Young, Foreman, Duvall, Lockett, Kreuter, Ford and Bower. Those opposed were Counsellin Lindsey, Flournoy, Van Meter and Wilson.

The $3,286 mentioned in the resolution was appropriated to the use of the city collector in making tender of the $3,000, with interest, paid by the East Tennessee Telephone company for a franchise, which was never accepted. He made tender and the company refused to accept it. Since then the money has laid in the bank without interest, while the city has

ORA FRANCE RECOVERING FROM EFFECTS OF BURNS.

The sufferings of Ora France, the 14-year-old daughter Mr. and Mrs. Sherman France, 1021 Lincoln avenue, who was badly burned Saturday afternoon, are relieved, and it is believed there is some hope for her recovery. This morning she was much improved.

Cugid at Seventy.

W. M. Jones, 70 years old, and Mrs. M. P. Morgan, 67 years old, were married by Magistrate John J. Bitch at his office on legal row this afternoon. Both parties live near Stiles station and are well known.

Night Riders Visit Dyersburg in Crittenden County, Burn Down Two Buildings and Whip Tobacco Men.

Between 100 and 200 Men Ride From Eddyville, Cut Telephone Wires and Terrorize Citizens.

Night riders from the direction of Eddyville, numbering more than 100 masked and armed, entered Dyersburg this morning shortly after midnight, took possession of the village, burned the warehouse and still house of Bennett Bros., and severely whipped Henry Bennett and W. H. Groves, bayers for O'Brien & company, of Paducah, representatives of the French Regie. There were but 100 pounds of tobacco in the warehouse, and the still was not in operation. The loss will be about $2,000. Mr. Bennett is in a serious condition as the result of his whipping with heavy thorn sticks.

It is reported here that the night riders passed through Eddyville. They entered Dyersburg from the south. They left their horses under guard a short distance out and entered on foot. The telephone office was closed and there are no police. The people of the village had just returned from an entertainment, so the entrance of the night riders was unexpected. The night riders have handed her roughly, and she received several blows from the clubs in their hands.

SELL CEMETERY SITE; PURCHASE SOMEWHERE ELSE

Sale of the new cemetery site, purchased three years ago from J. T. Potter, a mile and a half out on the Hinkleville road, is being advertised and last night at the meeting of the lower board of the general council, Chairman Ford, of the cemetery committee, reported that he, with other members of the committee, visited the site Sunday and because of its inaccessibility by reason of lack of street car facilities, they favor disposing of it and buying elsewhere. It is understood that Mayor Smith favors this plan.

The site is a beautiful one, and it a street car line reached it, no better could be selected. It is believed no trouble will be experienced in getting the original price, $6,000, for it, and possibly more.

The property was purchased from J. T. Potter in November, 1901, and Mr. Potter has been renting it from the city since then.

The sale of this property probably would be followed immediately by the purchase of some other site for a colored cemetery, as the colored section of Oak Grove is overcrowded.

NO QUORUM PRESENT

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 4.—(Special)—Both the house and senate adjourned after five minutes today ostensibly in memory of Goebel's birthday. The general opinion was that the house adjournment was to prevent action on the county unit bill. There was no quorum at the joint session.

CHARLES LEE HILL SURRENDERS TO COUNTY JAILER--SAYS IT WAS ACCIDENT

Slayer of Fannie Young, After Spending Night in Hiding, Returns and Tells How it Happened.

"Lock me up, Mistah Eaker," was the exclamation that greeted James Eaker, county jailer, this morning, and as he looked up he saw Charley Lee, alias Hill, colored, wanted for the murder of Fannie Young, standing before him. Jailer Eaker accommodated him, and Lee went back into his old love, with as much ease as a farm hand sits down to dinner.

When seen this morning, Lee said the shooting was accidental, and that he did not try to escape, but stayed out last night, and thought it best to surrender. Lee says he and Fannie Young were in the room at 311 South Ninth street, and they were examining a pistol. The catch had been broken, and he had the pistol "broke" and with force he slammed the chambers in place, and there was an explosion. The woman screamed and Lee realized the woman had been shot. He says he was unconscious that the barrel of the gun was pointed toward the woman. After the shooting Lee told a doctor of the shooting.

Lee has been out of jail about a month. He was arrested on a charge of highway robbery, but escaped punishment, and was then indicted by the grand jury on a charge of gambling, and fined $25. Hill will be 20 years old next April. All the patrolmen have been keeping a lookout for Hill, and telephoned to Cairo this morning to the officials, but Hill walked into the jailer's office at about 10 o'clock.

WEATHER.

In Police Court.

Police court passed off like a flurry this morning, and the business was disposed of in short order. The docked was: Drunk—Henry Melber, Jr.; Joe Koontz, $1 and costs; Breach of peace—Cornelius and Dick Wadlington, $20 and costs each; Joe Murphy, $10 and costs. Flourishing a pistol—Jim Henderson, continued until Wednesday. Petit larceny—Luther Chambers, continued until Thursday. Embezzlement—H. E. Hubbard, continued until Thursday.

ARTHUR MURRAY IS TIPPED FOR PLACE ON SCHOOL BOARD

Well Known Contractor and Business Man From Fifth Ward.

Committee Assisted in Straightening Out Schools.

NEW PLANS FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Tonight's meeting of the school board will be an important one, and it is tipped that Mr. Arthur Murray, of South Seventh street, will be elected to succeed Trustee J. O. Walker, who refused to qualify. Mr. Murray is a well known contractor and a sound business man. The board will take up the matter of issuing bonds for the construction of the new buildings. All the members have expressed their sentiment as favoring it, but no official action has been taken towards that end. The question will be given a thorough discussion and all conditions will be taken into consideration.

Mr. Warner Resigns.

Dr. C. G. Warner, of the Fourth ward, will resign tonight. Dr. Warner was dubious about allowing his name to go on the ballot and about serving after he was elected, because the nature of his business prevents his having time to attend meetings of the board or committees, or looking after school work; but he was persuaded to qualify. It being agreed, that if he could not devote the necessary time to the work no objections would be made to his resignation. Dr. Warner stated this morning that he is interested in the schools and would like to serve, but the only meeting he has had a chance to attend, he was called away from, and he realizes that he can not do what he feels would be his duty if he remained on the board.

High School Plans.

In order to facilitate the work of the high school, Prof. W. H. Sugg, the principal, has recommended making the departments more independent. All complaints or questions of the students about the certain subjects will be referred to the head of that department instead of to the principal direct.

The following will be the heads of the departments: Mathematics, Miss Adah L. Brazzelton; Latin, Miss Marion P. Noble; languages, Miss Sue E. Smith; English, Miss Ernestine Alms; science, Prof. C. H. Shreve; history and civics, Prof. Sugg and Prof. C. O. Peratt.

A copy of the work intended to be covered during the year will be handed to the principal. Each department assistant will refer all questions to the head of the department, and in this way the work in each department may be regulated.

All books used in the classes shall be ordered through the heads of the departments, and an outline of the work intended to be covered the next two weeks will be handed in and kept for reference. A detailed outline of the course of study will be given to the principal by the departments. An annual report will be required from each department, and recommendations must be written in the report, which will be published in the annual catalogue of the school in June. The number of pupils in the department during the year, the promotions and progress will be interesting data.

All the principals of the buildings and Trustee W. J. Hills and Trustee C. G. Kelly, secretary of the board, held a meeting yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and relieved the crowded condition of some of the buildings. An average of 35 pupils was placed in each room, but in some grades this number is too small. Pupils were sent to the next nearest school, and the boundary lines were not obeyed in relieving the teachers so that the best work may be accomplished. The principals made reports as to the schools, and the attendance was regulated so that it is in a much better condition.

Sessions have started off well at the "Whittier" and the "Longfellow" buildings and there was little confusion. About 110 pupils reported at the "Whittier" and today the casual observer could not distinguish it from the old school in quality of work.

Yankee Naval Strength in East Will be Equal to That of Japan as Soon as Reinforcements Arrive.

Plan of Department to Leave Several Battleships in Philippine Waters to be Augmented Later.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The government is assembling and preparing for dispatching to the Philippine Islands a battleship squadron which shall be supplemented by a portion of Admiral Evans' fleet to be left here.

It is known today authoritatively that the administration plans for Evans' fleet to return by way of the Suez canal, but by the time Evans is ready to weigh anchor in the Philippine Islands, his fleet will have been supplemented by six battleships and two armored cruisers. It is the plan of the navy board to divide the Evans' fleet in two parts after its arrival in the Philippine Islands. The first two squadrons will proceed homeward late this year or early next by the Suez canal, leaving the eight battleships of the last two divisions as a rear guard.

These eight battleships supplemented by the six which will have arrived, will make fourteen battleships in the far East. Japan has only fourteen battleships all together. By the time the two rear divisions of Rear Admiral Evans' fleet are ready to come additional ships of equal power will have gone to the far East to replace them.

Inasmuch as all statistics as to strength, on paper, are figured from battleships, it will be seen that the United States will have in the Philippine Islands a battleship squadron which, man for man, ship for ship, ton for ton, and in weight of metal thrown, will be the equal or slightly superior to Japan.

The government believes that in efficiency, men and marksmanship, the United States is the superior of any fleet afloat in the world, and to have a fleet in strength equal to that of any power with a naval base in the Pacific leaves the balance of power on the side of the United States.

The present plan is to make the battleship Nebraska, now on the Pacific coast, a flagship. She is a new and magnificent vessel. The repairs to the Oregon and Wisconsin, both on the Pacific coast, are almost completed.

The Idaho, which is about completed will be rushed to the Pacific by mid-summer. These four vessels will be supplemented before the end of the year by the Mississippi, now completed, and the New Hampshire, practically completed.

This squadron of battleships will be re-enforced by the armored cruisers North Carolina and Montana. There will be the usual auxiliary de-tall of torpedo boats, destroyers and colliers.

Assuming that the third and fourth divisions of Admiral Evans' fleet are the vessels designated to remain in the far East the government would have when Admiral Evans starts for home with his first two divisions, the following strength in the Pacific:

Nebraska, flagship; Idaho, Oregon, Wisconsin, Mississippi, New Hampshire.

Third and fourth divisions of Admiral Evans' fleet to remain behind are:

Minnesota, Ohio, Maine, Missouri, Alabama, Illinois, Kentucky and Kansas.

Lisbon, Feb. 4.—Many masses are being said for the souls of the late king and crown prince, whose bodies are now in the chapel of Necessidades palace. There is genuine mourning in the city. Republicans seek today to throw the responsibility for the deaths on the anarchists. The votes will be reconvened as soon as peace is restored with certainty. But three of the ministers named yesterday for the new cabinet remain in office today. New men were chosen today to meet view of conditionists.

Lisbon, via Frontier, Feb. 4.—More than 200 arrests have been made since Saturday night of persons suspected of complicity in the plot of assassination. Police adhere to the belief that the editor of one of the Lisbon papers was head of the organization which planned the establishment of a republic.

HIS JAW BROKEN

He reports that 50 well known anarchists live here.

COUNTY BILL IS LIKELY TO PASS BOTH BRANCHES

County Attorney Alben Barkley has received information from Frankfort that the bill, placing the county court house and other county buildings in the hands of the fiscal court, has passed the senate upon its first reading and in the opinion of McCracken county's representatives, will become a law. This is the bill which the committee from the fiscal court went to Frankfort to advocate.

A bill is also pending, which provides that the county shall pay for the provisions furnished jail prisoners, as cities do, but it is reported that the bill may not pass. The officers of the McCracken county fiscal court are opposed to the law.

UNDERWRITERS ACT

At a meeting of the board of fire underwriters today a petition was prepared to be presented to the board of aldermen, requesting them not to cut East Tennessee telephones out of the fire stations, as it might leave the city unprotected, in case anyone should wish to send in an alarm by the East Tennessee telephone.

Mr. T. J. Flynn went to Louisville today on a short trip.

The members of the fiscal court were entertained at dinner today by Jailer Eaker, the spread being given

DIE TOGETHER*STRANGE ACCIDENT HAPPENS AT MILAN, TENN.

Bodies of Brothers Found on Illinois Central by Night Watchman—
Six Feet Apart.

Milan, Tenn., Feb. 1.—An appalling accident occurred here last night at about 11 o'clock. Clifford and Herman Rowlett, brothers, were killed. It is supposed instantly, and their stiff bodies were found several hours later by Night Watchman Will Traviss on the tracks of the Illinois Central railroad in a broken and battered condition. As there was no eye witness to the accident there is not any definite way of telling how they came to their sudden end. But the report that he verified it by railroad officials is that both of them thought they were here yesterday evening over the Illinois Central railroad for Jackson, Tenn. They left here at 1 A.M. and were returning here last night on train No. 24, of the Illinois Central. They remained on the train until they arrived in the yards here and the train was nearing the depot when they suddenly got up from their seats in the train and went to the platform of the car and that was the last seen of them alive.

The supposition is that as their home was located but a few hundred feet from where they were found, they thought they would get off the train while it was running and get home quicker. At the time there was a freight train standing on the opposite track, and it is thought in their drunken stupor they leaped from the passenger train to have their brains dashed out when they hit the standing freight train.

BAN ON "SALOMÉ" IS REMOVED.

Pope's Action Crowds House to Hear Strauss Opera at Naples.

Naples, Feb. 1.—The first presentation here last night of Richard Strauss' opera, "Salomé," was the occasion of much excitement. The clergy, which denounced the libretto as immoral and its author, Oscar Wilde, as a heretic, urged women of the Roman Catholic faith not to attend the performance, and it was decided by the management not to produce the operetta. At the last moment, however, the announcement was made that the wailing had decided to remove its prohibition and the Teatro San Carlo therefore was crowded to overflowing.

BREED OF MEN*KIDNEY TROUBLE.

(Backache.)

Backache as a cause of kidney trouble is outrageously abused, for there is not one case in five of backache that is an evidence of inflammation in the kidneys. The kidneys are not sensitive and seldom reflect pain.

Backache is commonly an evidence of rheumatism, or shows a neuritis or rheumatic tendency in the muscles of the back. In those cases in which it does proceed from the kidneys it reveals an acute inflammation that usually yields very quickly and definitely to Fulton's Renal Compound.

But, as above, where backache is the only reason one has for suspecting the kidneys, it will in most cases be found more closely related to the muscular system than to the kidneys.

Kidney disease, first or last, is inflammation of the kidneys and there has been nothing on druggists' shelves for inflammation in the kidneys. The late John J. Fulton was the first man in the world to reach and reduce inflammation in kidney tissues, and his Renal Compound is the first real specific for kidney disease.

MORE IMPORTANT THAN BREED OF HORSES, SAYS HUGHES.

Race Track Gambling, Not Racing, Condemned by the Governor of New York.

New York, Feb. 1.—Governor Charles E. Hughes made a trenchant speech delivered at the Majestic theater in Brooklyn at a mass meeting of the citizens' anti-race track gambling campaign.

The governor declared that the question of race track gambling was not a matter for the churches or for any particular sect of social reformers, but whether the constitution of the state of New York shall be enforced.

He said that much had been done toward improving the breed of horses, which he was in favor of, but that he was also in favor of improving the breed of men.

Joseph H. Choate presided over the meeting, which was largely attended by representative citizens. A resolution strongly supporting Governor Hughes' position, and requesting the legislative committee to report on the three bills already drawn to end race track gambling was passed.

The governor was given an ovation when he commenced his speech. He said:

"I do not sympathize very much with schemes of moral regeneration through legislation. We can accomplish a great deal by wise laws, but the impetus to moral movements must, as a rule, be given by the voluntary work of citizens, who, with the force of conviction, press their views upon the people, awaken the consciences of the people and secure that public sentiment, according to which alone any true moral reform can be accomplished."

Gambling Microbe Bad.

"Now, there is a great deal that might be said with regard to the demoralization incident to race-track gambling. What we want to encourage in this country is the disposition to work, to give an equivalent and to expect not get an equivalent for every honest effort, and the curse is the constant desire to get something for nothing; and with man or horse, if that microbe gets into the system, there is going to be a bad case of moral disorder."

Betting is Un-American.

"Now, it is American to want to work, to make the most of yourself, and a boy who learns to follow the racing sheets, and the man who plays the races in the hope that he will get a dollar which he has not earned, or $10 which he has no right to take, that young man has lost the American sentiment, he has lost really what is the most important part of his birthright."

Not Opposed to Racing.

"Now, my friends, we have heard a great deal about improving the breed of horses. I am for that—the breed of horses and all other live stock. I am thoroughly in favor of doing all we can to improve the breed of men. I do not believe that the breed of horses will suffer from the other policy."

"I do not believe any reasonable amount of enjoyment will be lost. I have heard it said by those who ought to know that racing will not be seriously jeopardized. I am not against racing. I am against race-track gambling. If the one depends upon the other, I am sorry for that—I regret that—but that is no reason why we should have our constitution unrecognized and this widespread demoralization which could be so easily prevented."

BEVERAGE BILL*WILL RECEIVE SUPPORT OF NATIONAL MANUFACTURERS.

Want Commission Appointed to Take Question of Politics and Their Move on Washington.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Mighty commercial interests, representative of all sections of the country, will move upon Washington this week, to make known to the rulers of legislation the earnestness that underlies the national demand for tariff revision. Effort is to be concentrated in behalf of the Beveridge tariff commission bill, the effect of which would be to take the tariff issue out of politics and pave the way for revision on a purely business basis.

Many influential business men supporters of Republican policies, are possessed of the honest conviction that unless a step be taken along the lines provided in the measure introduced by the senator from Indiana, the Republican party may be put in an unpleasant position in the coming national campaign.

It is to urge a recognition of the true situation upon those responsible for the attitude the country may assume with reference to this question if it be forced to the front as an issue, because of failure to demonstrate practically a willingness to have the tariff revised in 1909, that representatives of the commercial bodies are to gather here. There will be a meeting of all the interests represented to outline a program of action, which will embrace a conference with members of congress and an interview with President Roosevelt on Wednesday.

Several vital reasons why the immediate establishment of a tariff commission should be provided, for and why business interests that want tariff revision at all should unite to force the passage of the Beveridge bill have just been set forth by the tariff committee of the National Association of Manufacturers.

EMBEZZLEMENT IS CHARGE AGAINST YOUNG COLLECTOR

Charged with embezzlement H. E. Hubbard, a collector for the Rhoads-Burford Furniture company, was arrested last night and lodged in jail. The books of the collector are being checked over, but until the investigation is complete it will not be possible to state how much it is alleged he secured from the firm. Hubbard says he is not guilty of the embezzlement. He admits a few discrepancies in his books, but says everything will be arranged all right.

Hubbard is a young man of excellent appearance, neatly dressed, and has been an active collector. It is charged that Hubbard collected from debtors of the firm, and in making settlements, reported that he was unable to get money from certain creditors. Our rumors that came to the manager, a quiet investigation was started, and yesterday afternoon while making a settlement, Patrolman John Jones placed Hubbard under arrest. The firm was satisfied it had lost enough to justify the warrant.

Hubbard resided formerly near Carbondale, and it is said his grandfather possesses wealth. Hubbard has been in the city for some time, and several weeks ago Dr. Hubbard, his father, came to the city and established an office on South Fourth street above the sheriff's office.

His trial in police court this morning was continued until Thursday morning. At police headquarters last night Hubbard told his father that $10 would settle the affair, but it has not been settled yet.

WHO GETS REWARD

OF $1,000 IS QUESTION OF DAY

Just who is entitled to the $1,000 reward offered for the capture of James Richardson, alias A. N. Groff, alias "Fatty," charged with the murder of Sheriff Joseph Price, at Fresno, Cal., is something of a problem, but anyhow Richardson is in jail on the charge. He was captured in this city early last evening by And Stone, a real estate man of Marion, Ill., but was arrested and taken to the station by Patrolmen Cross and Johnson.

It is said that Richardson killed Sheriff Price March 13, 1907, and has been a fugitive of justice since. He worked in Marion several months and when he learned the people knew there was a reward out for him he left. He was traced to Metropolis and had been living with two women, but had left. From the women Stone learned that Richardson was in Paducah. Yesterday afternoon he met Patrolmen Johnson and Cross and informed them of the crime and the fugitive of justice. It was agreed between the patrolmen and Stone that the patrolmen as he and Stone were on their way to the river.

Richardson had mistreated an animal at Marion and it had died, and he was under the impression that Stone was taking him back for that charge. However, the patrolmen took Richardson to the station and read the warrant charging him with murder. He said he was the wrong man, but was locked in jail until the authorities can get requisition papers. A picture of Richardson was taken this morning and it will be forwarded to the scene of the crime.

Mrs. Robert Graham, of Tenth and Tennessee streets, left this morning for Shawnee, Okla., where she will visit her mother, Mrs. P. A. Mitchell, for ten days.

The entrance of William J. ## Kentucky Coal Production 1906.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The government releases for publication a most interesting report on the coal production of Kentucky. The report states that the total production of coal for that state in 1906 was 9,553,647 short tons, of a spot value of $9,899,928. Continuing, the report says:

"With the close of 1906 Kentucky, like Iowa, completed a record of ten years of unbroken increase in her production of coal and attained the maximum output. In the history of the state, compared with that of 1905 last year's production showed an increase of 1,221,124 short tons, or 11.5 per cent, with a gain in value of $1,124,700, or 17 per cent. It showed an increase of over 76 per cent, as compared with the production of 1901, five years earlier, and was nearly three times the production of 1886, ten years earlier.

"A total of 15,252 men was employed in the coal mines of Kentucky, working an average of 212 days each against 11,655 men working an average of 209 days in 1905.

Labor in Mines.

"The statistics of the labor employed in the coal mines of Kentucky, taken with the statistics of production, show that there were 692,1 tons of coal produced in 1906 for each man employed as against 574,2 tons 2,98 in 1905, 2,87 in 1905 and 2,7 in 1905 and 332,2 tons in 1904. The average tonnage per man per day was 2.98 in 1906, 2.87 in 1905, and 2.7 in 1904. In 1906 the average daily production per man was 2.54 and in 1902 it was 2.35. These figures indicate a steady improvement in the productive capacity per employee, due in part, at least, to the growth in the use of modernizing machinery. Kentucky belongs to one of the most progressive states in this regard. In 1902 there were 318 mining machines in use; in 1904 there were 452; in 1905, 527, and in 1906, 600. The machine-mined coal produced in these four years has been in 1903, 2,813,805 tons; in 1904, 3,545,512 tons; in 1905, 4,409,951 tons, and in 1906, 5,175,950 tons. A little over 50 per cent of the total product in 1905 and 53.82 in 1906 was machine-mined.

"A large proportion—over two-thirds—of the mines in Kentucky are operated on the 'open-shop' or non union basis, and in consequence the eight-hour day is not so generally observed as in some of the other coal mining states. In 1906, out of a total of 15,252 men, 1,151, or about 27 per cent, worked eight hours; 4,002, or 26 per cent, worked nine hours, and 5,911, or 39 per cent, worked ten hours. Seven mines employing 314 men reported nine and one-half hours as the working day, and a few operators did not report the hours per day.

"The St. Imerard Mining company of Lexington, is the only company which reported having installed a washing plant for improving the quality of its product. This company reported having washed 92,612 short tons of coal, which yielded 82,322 tons of washed product and 10,290 tons of refuse.

"The accident statistics, as reported by Mr. C. J. Norwood, chief mine inspector of Kentucky, show that in 1906 there were forty men killed and 129 men injured in the coal mines of the state. The number of wives made widows and of children left fatherless was not reported. Of the total number of deaths two were due to explosions of dust, eighteen were due to falls of roofs in rooms, entries or gangways, and one to explosion of powder.

Continuing, the report estimates the total area underlain by coal in the eastern counties of Kentucky to be 11,180 square miles, and the coal-bearing areas in the western part of the state at 5,800 square miles. It goes on as follows:

"Up to the close of 1906 the western district, however, produced considerably more than half the total output of the state but the recent developments in Pike, Johnson and other counties of the eastern portion of Kentucky lead to the impression that the production in the eastern district will soon exceed that of the western.

Western District.

"The workable coal of the western district of Kentucky is confined almost entirely to two beds, designated as Nos. 9 and 11 by the geological survey of Kentucky. Of these, No. 9 is the more persistent and furnishes probably 75 per cent or more of the total production of the western counties of the state. It underlies the whole or portions of eight counties, including all of the field except its eastern portion and the southern or southwestern edge and a few other places where it has been cut out by irregularities in the structure. The bed has an average thickness of about five feet, and only rarely thickens out to more than five or six inches. It lies, as a rule, about 200 feet below the surface, and the mining is done by shaft. Seam No. 11 lies from 40 to 100 feet above No. 9, and is the next important bed in western Kentucky. It is much more irregular than No. 9, but usually where worked has a thickness of six feet or over. Another seam lying about 25 feet above No. 11 is known as No. 12. It is found in Webster, Hopkins, McLean and Muhlenberg counties. In the central portion of this field this bed attains a thickness of from three to six feet. Other seams besides these are mined in the district, notably what is supposed to be No. 6 and also No. 5, near Ekenon, in Union county.

"So far as the records of early coal production in the United States are to be accepted, Kentucky was the third state to enter the list of regular coal producers. According to one of the early reports of the Kentucky geological survey (published in 1888) the first coal produced in the state was mined in 1827 on the right side of the (Cumberland) river below the mouth of Laurel."

COURT DECIDED

IN HIS FAVOR

Cooper Fought to Retain Formula Which Has Made a Fortune.

J. T. Cooper, the man who believes that 90 per cent of all ill health of this generation is caused by stomach trouble, is fast winning a national faith in his theory. His claim is now admitted by a surprising number of people throughout the country, and he is gaining new adherents every day. While speaking of his success in a recent interview, Mr. Cooper said: "I believed ten years ago that any one who could produce a formula that would thoroughly regulate the stomach would have a fortune. When I got hold of this formula I knew within six months that I was right, and that my fortune was made. I called the medicine 'Cooper's New Discovery' although I did not get up the formula. I have sold it for over three years. I have had one lawsuit after another, while I won in the courts. When it was called 'The Cooper Medicine' became the only drug in the world that can prepare the medicine. The preparation has sold like wildfire wherever introduced. As I have said before it is successful simply because it puts the stomach in perfect shape, then nature does the rest. There are any number of complaints, never before associated with such much trouble that big medicine has alleviated in thousands of cases."

"I was very nervous, and could hardly sleep. I had a roaring in my ears and dashing spots before my eyes. I felt very bad and weak. Then there was a very sore spot at the pit of my stomach that nearly set me wail."

"I heard about the Cooper medicine and decided to try it. I used four bottles, and the improvement in my case has been really wonderful. My nerves have been quieted, and I am much improved that I feel like a new woman."

"I cannot say too much for these wonderful remedies for they have made me well."

"We sell the Cooper medicine and consider them well worth a trial by any one afflicted with chronic stomach trouble and all abdominal diseases."—W. H. McPherson.

NEW CHURCH LAW.

The Catholic church's new laws touching the betrothal and marriage are to be promulgated Easter Sunday in every Catholic diocese in the world and they go into effect at noon on that day.

Under these laws any marriage contracted between Catholics will be absolutely void in the eyes of the church unless it is celebrated in the presence of a qualified priest and two witnesses. At present the marriage of a Catholic pair by a non-Catholic clergyman or by a civil magistrate is valid although it is considered illicit, and the persons contracting it render themselves liable to excommunication.

Protestants married by a minister will be regarded lawfully married under the new law.

In brief," said a Catholic clergyman, "marriage between Catholics in Protestant churches or registry offices will be for Catholics not only sinful but invalid, and the persons who contract them will have only gone through an empty ceremony and will be no more husband and wife than they were before. This law blinds all Catholics, even though they are apostate or excommunicated."

That it does not affect those who are not and never have been Catholics. Consequently, Protestants and non-Catholics are outside of the scope of the law. In the eyes of the church, such marriages are recognized by the Catholic church, all else permitting it, as real and true marriages."

The principles contained in the new law have long been recognized in the church. It is explained, and their recent promulgation is said to be due to the increase of marriages before civil magistrates in this country and abroad.

JOHN D'S FATHER

OLD MAN LEVINGSTON DIES AND WIFE IS MYSTIFIED.

Wonderful Resemblance of Freeport
Quack to Father of Rockefeller Boys.

Freeport, Ill., Feb. 4.—The news of the publication in the New York World of an eight column article declaring that the body of Dr. William Avery Rockefeller, father of John D. Rockefeller, lies in an unmarked grave in Oaklawn cemetery caused little excitement here. Freeport people did enough talking in July, 1905, when it was announced that Dr. William Livingston was the father of the oil king.

For thirty-six years Dr. Livingston had lived in Freeport as a traveling physician and vendor of medicines which had been the business of the elder Rockefeller. The suspicion of his dual life was aroused by the publication of a photograph of William A. Rockefeller in McClure's Magazine of July, 1905. Its remarkable resemblance to Livingston was commented upon by residents, who declared it was an actual portrait of him.

There was no opportunity to question Livingston himself, as he was more than 90 years of age, feeble both in mind and body, entirely deaf and nearly blind. Even his wife could not communicate with him and she herself wavered in her belief as to his being a likeness of the oil king's father.
